My name is Dayna Adams. I recently graduated from Middlefield Collegiate Institute in June 2014. I have been an active member of the Barbados Overseas Community Canada organization for many years and have helped to organize and work at different events within the Bajan community.

I am currently attending the University of Guelph-Humber studying Family and Community Social Services. I'd like to thank the Council of Caribbean Associations-Canada for providing me with this scholarship, as it will be a great deal of help to me in paying for my educational expenses and excelling in the future.

Jesse Hector is a student at York University in Toronto, Ontario studying criminology and political science. He has a strong academic background, and strives for excellence in his studies.

He has received numerous recognition awards for academic achievement, outstanding community service, and various leadership activities. Jesse participates as a mentor to youth and serves several leadership committees through campus ministry, and community outreach. Jesse is involved in several capacities in his church and community choir which participates in community events. He enjoys supporting youth helping others reach their goals. Moreover, Jesse looks forward to an exciting career in criminal justice or government"
