

Recipient of the Gideon L. Exeter Bursary

Kendra Austin

Kendra Austin is a first-year university student at the University of Waterloo pursuing a degree in Honours Arts Psychology.

She graduated from her local high school York Mills Collegiate on the honour roll and having completed over a 100 hours of community service. Over the last few years Kendra has volunteered and worked as a camp counselor at the Downsview Youth Covenant and multiple clubs within her school such as Best Buddies and Art Council. On top of all the volunteer work, she was an active member of the Leadership by Design Program for the past three years, working with mentors and mentoring others while attending many new and informative events and lectures.

By the end of her first year she plans to declare a major in Psychology with a minor in French.